

FLETCHER: Testing, testing. Okay, Valerie. Can you talk at all?

VALERIE: Yes.

FLETCHER: You can talk.

UNK FEMALE: Yes, it hurts just a little bit, but she can talk some.

FLETCHER: Okay. Valerie, do you remember what happened, on March second, in your home? You don't really remember what happened?

FEMALE: Can you tell us anything that happened to you?

UNK FEMALE: Think about it, can you tell them anything that happened dear?

FLETCHER: You can't tell us anything about what happened, on March second in your house?

~~UNK FEMALE:~~ Did she know who hurt her?

✓ FEMALE: ✓ She told me she didn't know.

~~FLETCHER:~~ Okay, if I were to show you some pictures is it any way possible you may could tell, shake, nod your head and tell, say if you know, saw those faces before?

FLETCHER: You can?

FLETCHER: Okay, on these pictures, do you see anybody in there that you know that possibly came in your house on this March second? You do? Do you see any of them? Was it this one? Was it that one in the back right there? It was this one here? Okay, I'm going to show you another picture. group of guys, which one of these guys?

UNK FEMALE: Show, touch it with your finger, then and show them.

FLETCHER: Can you touch it with your finger?

~~UNK FEMALE:~~ Get your finger and show them which, who did it.

FLETCHER: Was it that one? Okay, take a good look at it now. Take your time. That one?
